

Loading RX Files to MaveriX and Creating a Working Job

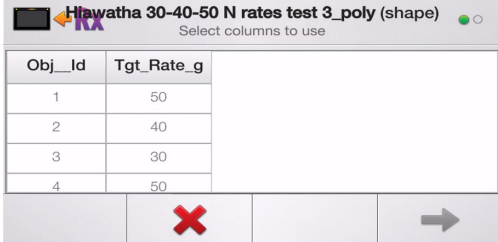

Ensure user has prescription files to download

- Hiawatha 20-40-60 N rates test 2_poly.dbf
- Hiawatha 20-40-60 N rates test 2_poly.prj
- Hiawatha 20-40-60 N rates test 2_poly.shp
- Hiawatha 20-40-60 N rates test 2_poly.shx
- Hiawatha 25-50-75 N rates test 1_poly.dbf
- Hiawatha 25-50-75 N rates test 1_poly.prj
- Hiawatha 25-50-75 N rates test 1_poly.shp
- Hiawatha 25-50-75 N rates test 1_poly.shx

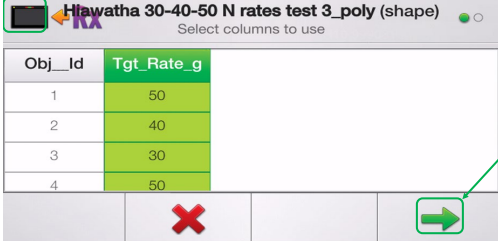

Insert USB into Maverix terminal. Navigate to Files>RX to display the Prescription Maps on the right side of screen. Prescription Maps on the right side of screen. The combined files will be displayed as a Prescription Map on the terminal. Select the files to be transferred and press the  begin the transfer.

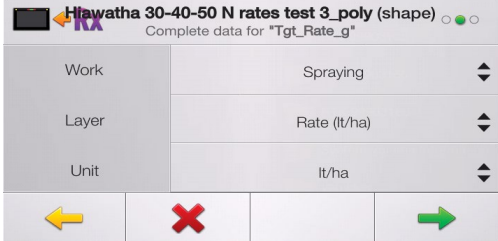

To begin the process, the terminal will display a popup of polygons and target rates.

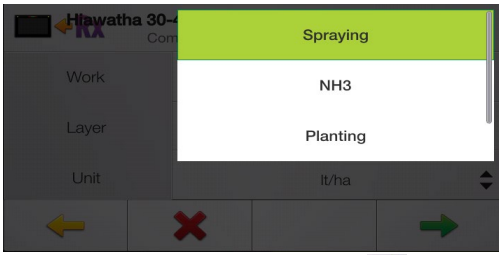

Press the top of the target rate column to select column containing all the rates. Then press .

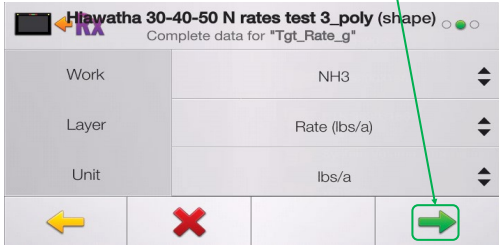

Next, ensure the correct application, rate, and units are selected from the drop-down menus.

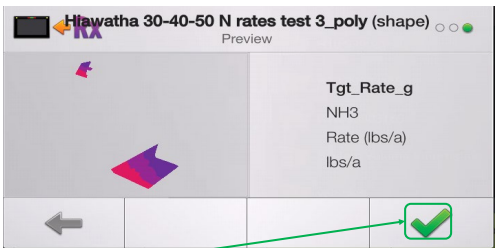

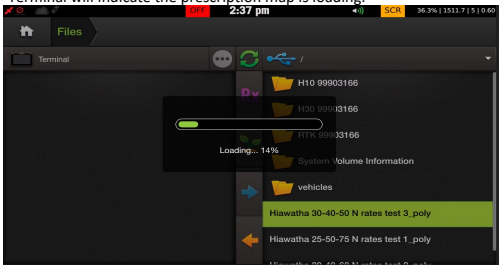

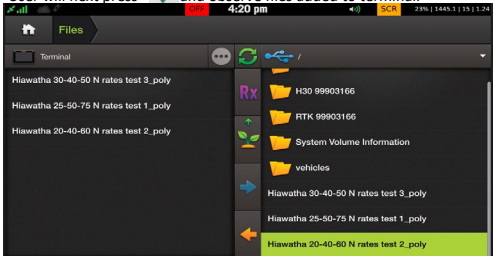

In this case NH3 (Nitrogen) is selected. Then press xt

Terminal will indicate the prescription map is loading.

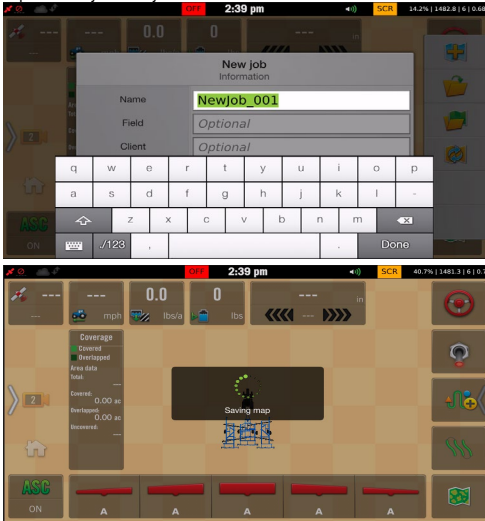

User will next press  and observe files added to terminal.

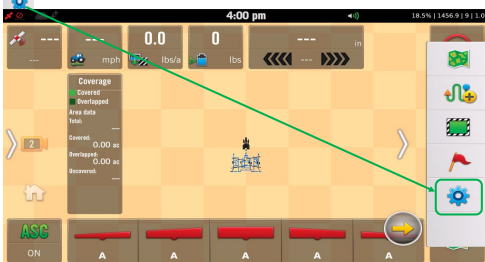

Opening A New Job Adding a Prescription.

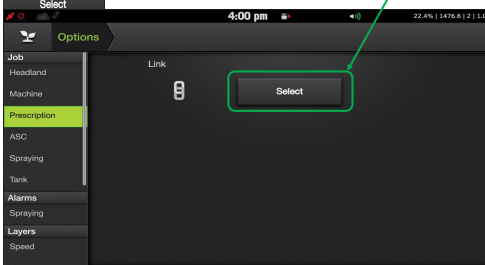

Open a new job from jobs menu.

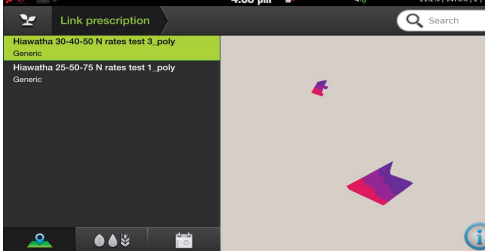

Once job is open access right slide out menu and press the job options icon.

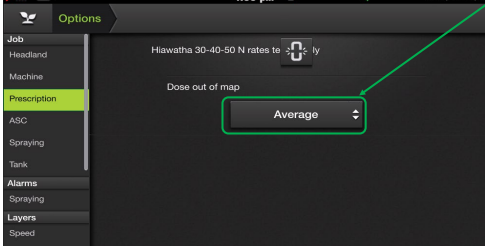

Navigate to Job Options>Prescription>Link. Press Select.

Link a prescription from the list provided (list includes all prescriptions transferred to Maverix in files menu).

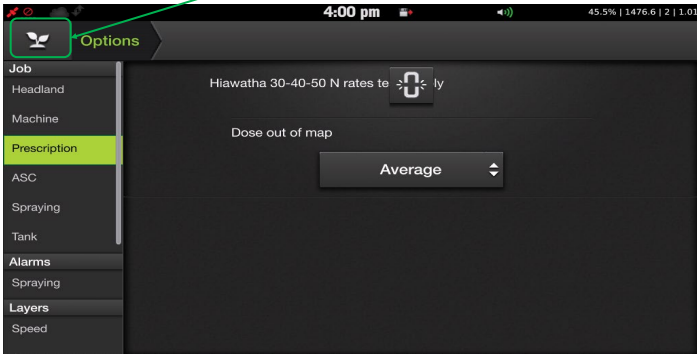

Once selected the prescription map will be listed with an out of map dosage rate.

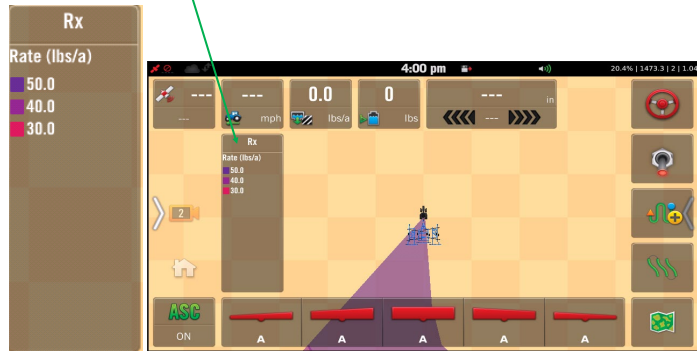

Dose out of map drop down will have 3 selections:

1. Average- Average of the total amount will be applied outside of the map area
2. Preset- User sets the amount to be applied outside of the map area
3. Zero- No application outside of the map area

To access the jobs menu press

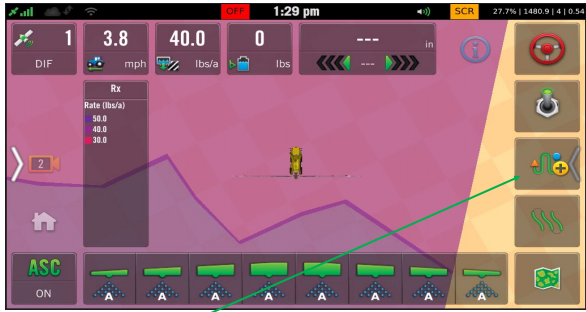

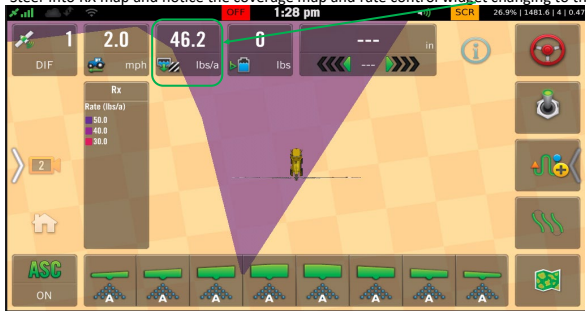

User will cycle thru the coverage menus until the RX coverage is displayed. The current prescription application will be displayed at one edge of the RX map.

Select RX from the Rate Control Options widget.

Steer into RX map and notice the coverage map and rate control widget changing to the desired rates.

Set guidance and begin.